3. PACKAGING AND PACKING, SHIPPING, DELIVERY, TITLE, AND RISK OF LOSS

A. Seller shall, unless otherwise stated in the Order, prepare, package, pack and mark all Products in accordance with Buyer’s requirements. Damage resulting from failure to comply with any such requirements will be charged to Seller.
B. Shipping terms shall be as designated on the face of the Order. Seller must ship strictly in accordance with Buyer’s instructions and requirements.
C. Risk of any loss and/or damage to Products occurring before receipt at the relevant delivery point in accordance with the shipping terms of the Order shall be Seller’s responsibility. Except as otherwise specified within the Order, title and risk of loss shall pass to Buyer upon receipt at the relevant delivery point in accordance with the shipping terms of the Order (except for loss or damage resulting from Seller’s fault or negligence or failure to comply with the terms of the Order); however, passing of title shall not relieve Seller of any other obligations under the Order.
D. All Parties expressly agree that time is of the essence in the performance of the Order. All deliveries shall be strictly in accordance with the applicable quantities and schedules set forth in the Order. Unauthorized over shipments and early shipments may be returned at Seller’s expense. Seller shall be liable for all storage/handling charges incurred as a result of over shipments and early shipments.
E. Whenever it appears Seller will not meet the Order schedule, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer of the reason and estimated length of the delay. Neither such notification nor an acknowledgment by Buyer shall constitute a waiver of the Order’s specified delivery schedule. Seller shall make every effort to avoid or minimize the delay to the maximum extent possible, including the expenditure of premium time and most expeditious transportation.
F. If Seller is unable to meet the required schedules for any reason, other than a change directed by Buyer,
Buyer shall have the option to (1) cancel the Order, in whole or in part, or (2) fill such Order, or any portion thereof, from sources other than Seller and to reduce Seller’s Order quantities accordingly at no increase in unit price, without any penalty to Buyer.

G. Any preparations made or work performed by Seller or its suppliers or subcontractors prior to issuance of the Order shall be at Seller’s expense.

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, in no event shall Buyer be liable for any costs or expenses incurred in connection with or as a result of: (1) procurement of materials in advance of standard industry lead times in effect at the time of such material procurement; and/or (2) commencement of production in advance of Seller’s standard lead time for the product.

4. INSPECTION AND ACCEPTANCE

A. All Products shall meet the quality requirements stated in the Order.

B. Representatives of Buyer and Buyer’s customers shall have the right to inspect all premises where the Order is being performed and the right to inspect and test all Products and Services, and all related supplies, components, material and workmanship, at all places and times including, when practicable, during the period of manufacture or performance and before shipment. If any such inspection or test is required to be made on the premises of Seller or any tier of Seller’s suppliers or subcontractors, Seller shall furnish and require such suppliers and subcontractors to furnish, without additional charge, access to all reasonable facilities and assistance for a safe and convenient inspection or test. Seller shall not relocate any production, manufacturing and/or processing facilities during performance of the Order without promptly notifying Buyer and affording Buyer an opportunity to examine such facilities in order to confirm Seller’s ability to continue to meet its obligations under the Order.

C. Notwithstanding any prior payment or inspection, Products and Services shall be the subject of final inspection and acceptance by Buyer after receipt by Buyer of such Products or Services, unless otherwise specified in the Order.

D. Neither inspection and acceptance of any Products or Services by Buyer, nor failure by Buyer to inspect and accept or reject Products or Services, shall be deemed to alter or affect the obligations of Seller under the Order or the rights of Buyer and its customers under the Order or as may be provided by law or equity.

E. Seller shall make its records of all inspection work available to Buyer and Buyer’s customers during the performance of the Order and for such longer period as may be specified in the Order or required by applicable law.

5. NON–CONFORMING PRODUCTS OR SERVICES.

A. Buyer and Seller agree that the Products ordered pursuant to the Order are unique. Seller shall deliver Products that conform to the terms of the Order as stated in the Seller’s Obligations clause. If Seller fails to deliver such Products, or delivers defective or non-conforming Products, Buyer may exercise one or more of the following remedies:

1. Return all or any part of a delivery of defective or non-conforming Products at Seller’s cost, and debit Seller’s account, demand a refund and/or require delivery of conforming Products;
2. Retain all or any part of the defective or non-conforming Products at an equitable price reduction;
3. Make, require Seller to promptly make, or have a third party make, all repairs, modifications, or replacements necessary to enable such Products to comply in all respects with the terms of the Order, at such location(s) as reasonably required by Buyer; or
4. Terminate the Order, in whole or in part, for default in accordance with the Default; Remedies for Default clause.

B. Seller shall provide Services that conform to the terms of the Order as stated in the Seller’s Obligations clause. If Seller fails to provide such Services, or provides defective or non-conforming Services, Buyer may exercise one or more of the following remedies:

1. Debit Seller’s account, demand a refund and/or require Seller to promptly correct or re-perform the defective or non-conforming Services;
2. Retain all or any part of the defective or non-conforming Services at an equitable price reduction;
3. Perform, or have a third party perform, replacement Services that comply in all respects with the terms of the Order; or
4. Terminate the Order, in whole or in part, for default in accordance with the Default; Remedies for Default clause.

C. In the event that Seller provides defective or non-conforming Products or Services, or otherwise fails to conform to the terms of the Order, Seller shall bear all of its own costs in connection with the repair, correction, modification, replacement, or re-performance thereof and shall be responsible for the costs or damages which Buyer incurs or for which Buyer is responsible as a result of or in connection with such defect(s) or non-conformance and the repair, correction, modification, replacement, or re-performance thereof.

6. WARRANTY

A. (1) Seller warrants to Buyer and Buyer’s customers that all Products delivered under the Order will: (i) be free from defects in design (unless design was furnished by Buyer), materials, workmanship, manufacturing processes and packaging; (ii) be suitable for the purposes intended whether expressed or reasonably implied; (iii) strictly conform to and perform in accordance with the terms of the Order, including but not limited to applicable descriptions, drawings, planning, and specifications; (iv) be produced, designed, packaged, marked, labeled, supplied, delivered and maintained in accordance with, and comply with, all applicable Laws (as defined below); and (v) be free of all claims, liens and encumbrances. Except as otherwise stated on the face of the Order or in the Company-Specific Addendum, the warranties set forth above shall remain in effect for twelve (12) months after delivery to Buyer.

(2) If any Product fails to comply in any respect with Seller’s warranties set forth in the Order, Buyer shall have the option, in its sole discretion, at Seller’s expense, to exercise one or more of the following remedies: (i) return such Product and debit Seller’s account or demand a refund; (ii) make, require Seller to promptly make, or have a third party make all repairs, modifications, or replacements (the "Corrections") necessary to enable such Product to comply in all respects with such warranties at such location(s) as reasonably required by Buyer; or (iii) terminate the Order, in whole or in part, for default in accordance with the Default; Remedies for Default clause.

(3) Any Products to which Corrections have been made by Seller, Buyer, or a third party under this Warranty clause shall be warranted by Seller for twelve (12) months after the date of such Corrections or the unexpired remainder of the warranty period as specified in the Order, whichever period is greater. However, Seller shall not be held liable for defects or failures attributable to misuse or negligent Corrections by Buyer or any third party.

(4) If Buyer requires Seller to make Corrections to any noncompliant Products, Seller shall ensure that Buyer receives such corrected or replacement Products within a period of fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of Buyer’s notice, unless a longer period is approved by Buyer in writing.

(5) Seller shall process and reimburse Buyer for any claim by Buyer for amounts owed by Seller under this Warranty clause within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of Buyer’s claim. In the event Buyer’s claim is disallowed by Seller, such disallowance shall constitute a dispute within the meaning of the Disputes and Governing Law clause.

(6) Seller’s obligation to meet the delivery schedule established in the Order shall not be affected by any Corrections made pursuant to this Warranty clause.

(7) If Products furnished contain manufacturer’s warranties, Seller hereby assigns such warranties to Buyer and its customers and users at any tier.

(8) Buyer’s rights and remedies under this Warranty clause shall, at Buyer’s option, be assignable to and enforceable by Buyer’s customers and users at any tier.

B. Seller warrants that all Services performed under the Order shall: (i) be performed in a good and workmanlike manner; (ii) strictly conform to the terms of the Order, including but not limited to applicable descriptions, drawings, planning, and specifications; (iii) conform to all industry practices and standards; (iv) comply with all applicable Laws (as defined below); and (v) be free from defects in workmanship. Seller further warrants that Seller’s employees and subcontractors are properly trained and/or licensed as required for the performance of the Services. If any Service fails to comply with Seller’s warranties set forth in the Order, Buyer shall have the option, in its sole discretion, at Seller’s expense, to exercise one or more of the following remedies: (i) correct or re-perform, require Seller to promptly correct or re-perform, or engage a third party to correct or re-perform such Services; (ii) demand a refund of the fees for such Services; or (iii) terminate the Order, in whole or in part, for default in accordance with the Default; Remedies for Default clause. In addition, Seller shall be responsible for (i) reasonable administrative costs incurred by Buyer in identifying, determining the disposition of, and processing required documentation for the noncompliant Services; (ii) reasonable delay and disruption costs incurred by Buyer; and (iii) other costs or damages which Buyer incurs or for which Buyer is responsible.

C. Seller acknowledges and agrees that any inspection, testing, acceptance or use of any Products or Services by Buyer does not affect Seller’s obligations or Buyer’s rights or remedies under the foregoing warranties.

D. Seller shall immediately notify Buyer upon receipt of any Government-Industry Data Exchange Program ("GIDEP") Alert related to Products, and shall provide Buyer with a list of all affected Products by Order, part number, invoice number, serial number, or any other identifying number as applicable. For GIDEP Alerts caused in whole or in part by the Products, Seller shall immediately replace all affected Products at its sole expense including any installation and removal costs for the Products so affected and reimburse Buyer for any damages and commercially reasonable expenses incurred by Buyer.

E. If the Federal Aviation Administration, or other aviation authority, issues any Airworthiness Directives ("ADs"), or the equivalent of ADs, related to any Products, then Seller shall immediately remove the causes(s) of the ADs or AD equivalents in all Products delivered and to be delivered to each affected Buyer including, but not limited to, Products utilized in the field. Seller shall reimburse Buyer for all costs and damages associated with removal, redelivery and installation of any Products that are incurred by Buyer as a result of such ADs or equivalent ADs.
F. Seller shall provide all service bulletins, safety bulletins and ADs (collectively “Bulletins”) to Buyer immediately upon issuance. Seller shall implement any recommendations contained in the Bulletins on all Products delivered and to be delivered.

7. BUYER AUTHORIZATION
A. The Authorized Purchasing Representative has sole authority to make contractual commitments on behalf of Buyer, to provide contractual direction, and to change contractual requirements as defined in the Order.
B. Buyer’s representatives other than Buyer’s Authorized Purchasing Representative may, from time to time, release to Seller information applicable to the Order. If Seller believes that any such information so provided to Seller changes the contractual requirements and/or performance of the Order, Seller shall not act on such information and it shall not be contractually effective unless and until Seller receives written contractual direction to act from Buyer’s Authorized Purchasing Representative.

8. PRICES, INVOICING, AND PAYMENT
A. Buyer shall pay Seller the price and/or rates set forth in the Order for Products received and/or Services performed, as applicable. Unless otherwise stated on the face of the Order, payment of each invoice is due from Buyer no later than sixty (60) days from the later of (i) the date of receipt of Products or completion of Services, as applicable, or (ii) the date of receipt of a correct invoice.
B. Except as otherwise stated on the face of the Order or in the Company-Specific Addendum, the prices and/or rates set forth in the Order are stated in U.S. Dollars and are not subject to exchange rate adjustments. The price and/or rates set forth in the Order include all applicable taxes and all profit, wages, salaries, overhead, and other costs and expenses, unless otherwise specifically addressed in the Order. No overtime, expedite charges, or other premium rates will be paid unless specifically authorized by Buyer in the Order.
C. Except as otherwise stated on the face of the Order or in the Company-Specific Addendum, Seller shall submit a separate invoice per Products shipment. Unless otherwise specified in the Order, no invoice shall be issued prior to shipment of Products or completion of Services, as applicable. Seller shall include or provide such information or supporting documentation as Buyer may reasonably require in support of the invoice. At any time prior to final payment under the Order, Buyer may have invoices audited as to validity. Payment of Seller’s invoices shall be subject to adjustment for any amounts found upon audit or otherwise to have been improperly invoiced.
D. Unless otherwise agreed by Buyer, Buyer shall have no obligation to pay any Seller invoice submitted more than six (6) months after the date of delivery of the invoiced Products or completion of the invoiced Services.
E. Payment shall not constitute acceptance of Products or Services.
F. Buyer shall have the right to set off against any Seller invoice any amount owing by Seller to Buyer, whether under this or any other contract or order between the Parties.

9. CHANGES
A. Buyer may at any time, by written notice to Seller, make changes within the scope of the Order, including, but not limited to, in (1) drawings, designs, specifications, planning, and/or other technical documents; (2) method of shipment, packaging, or packing; (3) place of delivery; (4) quantity of Product (increase or decrease); (5) delivery schedule(s); (6) place of inspection; and (7) place of acceptance. Seller shall immediately comply with such change(s) upon receipt of notice, irrespective of the failure of the Parties to agree to an equitable adjustment as described below.
B. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the Order, if the change causes a material increase or decrease in the cost of or time required to perform the Order, then an equitable adjustment may be made in the purchase price and/or delivery schedule and the Order shall be modified in writing accordingly.
C. Seller shall provide written notice of its intent to assert any claim for equitable adjustment within ten (10) calendar days from the date of receipt by Seller of Buyer’s written notice of change, and shall provide all supporting documentation necessary to verify its claim within thirty (30) calendar days after its delivery of such written notice of intent. Any claim that is not submitted to Buyer in accordance with this paragraph shall be unconditionally waived.
D. If Seller claims the cost of any property made obsolete or excess, Buyer shall have the right to prescribe the manner of disposition of such property, and Buyer may elect to acquire any and all such property for an amount not to exceed the cost claimed by Seller.
E. Failure to agree to any adjustment shall constitute a dispute within the meaning of the Disputes and Governing Law clause. However, nothing in this Changes clause shall excuse Seller from proceeding with the Order as changed.

10. ADEQUATE ASSURANCE OF PERFORMANCE
A. If at any time Buyer has grounds for insecurity as to whether Seller’s performance will be full, timely, and continuing in accordance with the terms of the Order, then Buyer may request, by written notice to Seller, adequate assurances in writing that Seller is able and willing to perform all of its respective obligations under the Order.
B. Seller shall prepare and provide with its assurances of performance any information, reports, or other materials as Buyer may request. Upon Buyer’s request and as soon as practicable, Seller shall make available its employees, including members of Seller’s senior management, to meet with Buyer to discuss those assurances of performance.

C. If Seller does not provide adequate written assurances within ten (10) calendar days after Buyer’s written notice and request, then Buyer may, at its option, treat the Order as breached by Seller.

11. DEFAULT; REMEDIES FOR DEFAULT

A. Each of the following shall constitute an “Event of Default” under the Order:

(1) Seller fails to deliver the Products or to perform the Services within the time specified in the Order or any extension granted in writing by Buyer;

(2) Seller breaches or fails to perform any of the other provisions of the Order and, if such breach or failure is subject to cure, fails to cure such breach or failure within a period of ten (10) calendar days after receipt of written notice from Buyer specifying Seller’s breach or failure to perform;

(3) Seller fails to provide adequate assurances of performance in accordance with the Adequate Assurance of Performance clause; or

(4) Seller becomes insolvent or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or files or has filed against it a petition of bankruptcy or for reorganization, or pursues any other remedy under any other law relating to the relief for debtors, or a trustee or receiver is appointed for Seller’s property or business.

B. If any Event of Default occurs:

(1) Buyer may, at its sole option, immediately terminate the Order, in whole or in part, by giving written notice to Seller, and Buyer shall not be required to accept the tender by Seller of any Products or Services subject to the termination, including any component, part or feature thereof.

(2) Whether or not Buyer exercises its right to terminate the Order, Buyer may manufacture, produce, or provide, or may engage any other persons to manufacture, produce, or provide, any products and/or services in substitution for (or in addition to) the Products and/or Services to be delivered by Seller. In the event Buyer exercises this right of cover in the absence of a termination, this right of cover shall extend for such time as Buyer determines in its sole discretion is necessary to mitigate or remedy Seller’s default(s).

C. If, after a notice of termination is issued pursuant to this Default; Remedies for Default clause, it is determined for any reason that Seller was not in default or that Buyer’s termination was not a proper termination for default, the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be the same as if a notice of termination for convenience had been issued pursuant to the Termination for Convenience clause of the Order.

12. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

A. Buyer may terminate the Order, in whole or in part, for convenience by providing to Seller a written notice specifying the extent and effective date of such termination.

B. In the event of a termination under this Termination for Convenience clause, Buyer shall be required to pay (to the extent not already paid) the Order price for Products and Services delivered and accepted, and Buyer and Seller shall agree on the amount of payment for any work in process and other long-lead material, if applicable, authorized by Buyer to be acquired or produced for the work terminated. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not in any event be required to pay any amounts in excess of the Order total price and no amount will be allowed for profit on the terminated portion of the Order. In the event of a partial termination, no adjustment will be made in the price of that portion of the Order which has not been terminated.

C. Seller shall submit a final termination settlement claim, if any, to Buyer, in the form prescribed by Buyer, within three (3) months after the effective date of termination. Any termination settlement claim that is not submitted to Buyer in accordance with this paragraph shall be unconditionally waived.

13. SELLER’S OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION

A. After receipt of a notice of termination, for any reason, and except as directed by Buyer, Seller shall immediately proceed with the following obligations and any other actions directed or authorized by Buyer, regardless of any delay in determining or adjusting any amounts due, if any, under the Termination for Convenience clause:

(1) Stop work as specified in the notice.

(2) Place no further subcontracts or purchase orders for materials, services, or facilities, except as necessary to complete the continued portion of the Order.

(3) Terminate all subcontracts and purchase orders to the extent they relate to the work terminated.

(4) Promptly provide Buyer an inventory, including location and completion status, of all fabricated or unfinished Products, work in process, completed work, supplies, and other material produced or acquired for the work terminated.
(5) As directed by Buyer, transfer title and deliver to Buyer (or Buyer’s designee): (a) the fabricated or unfabricated Products, work in process, completed work, contract rights, supplies, and other material produced or acquired for the work terminated; and (b) the completed or partially completed plans, drawings, information, tooling, equipment, and other property that, if the Order had been completed, would be required to be furnished to Buyer.

(6) Complete performance of the work not terminated.

(7) Take any action that may be necessary, or that Buyer may direct, for the protection and preservation of the property related to the Order that is in the possession of Seller and in which Buyer has or may acquire an interest.

B. Seller’s transfer or delivery of Products to Buyer (or Buyer’s designee) under this Seller’s Obligations upon Termination clause shall be at no cost to Buyer, except that (i) under a Termination for Convenience, Seller may include its reasonable costs associated with such transfer and delivery as part of a Termination for Convenience claim; and (ii) under a Termination for Default, Buyer shall take into consideration in mitigation of any claims by Buyer for damages as a result of an Event of Default the value of all Products transferred.

C. Seller hereby authorizes Buyer, its representatives, or its designees to enter upon Seller’s or any of its subcontractors’ premises at any time during reasonable business hours, upon reasonable advance written notice, for the purposes of taking inventory and/or physical possession of any of all of the aforesaid items.

D. Seller shall, if instructed by Buyer, store or dispose of any or all of the aforesaid items in any reasonable manner requested by Buyer.

14. EXCUSABLE DELAY AND DISASTER RECOVERY

A. If the delivery of any Product or the performance of any Service is delayed by unforeseeable circumstances beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of Seller or any tier of its suppliers or subcontractors (any such delay being hereinafter referred to as “Excusable Delay”), the schedule for delivery of such Product or performance of such Service may be revised as determined by Buyer.

B. Excusable Delays may include, but are not limited to, acts of God, war, riots, acts of government, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, freight embargoes, or unusually severe weather, but shall exclude Seller’s noncompliance with any rule, regulation or order promulgated by any governmental agency. However, the above notwithstanding, Buyer expects Seller to continue production, recover lost time and support all schedules as established under the Order. Therefore, it is understood and agreed that (i) delays of less than two (2) calendar days’ duration shall not be considered to be Excusable Delays unless such delays shall occur within thirty (30) calendar days prior to the scheduled delivery date of any Product and (ii) if delay in delivery of any Product or performance of any Service is caused by the default of any tier of

C. Seller shall give to Buyer prompt notice in writing when it appears that an Excusable Delay will delay the furnishing of Products or Services, and Seller shall provide a recovery plan acceptable to Buyer within ten (10) calendar days after submission of such notice. Notwithstanding the occurrence of an Excusable Delay, Seller shall use its best efforts to mitigate the effects of the Excusable Delay. In addition, Seller shall endeavor to make available to Buyer substitute Products or Services in an adequate quantity, at no additional charge to Buyer. If an Excusable Delay extends beyond thirty (30) days, Buyer may cancel or terminate, without penalty or obligation for further payment, the Order.

D. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Seller provides parts that (1) are considered in the industry to be “flight safety parts”; (2) are a sole source of supply; or (3) have lead time in excess of one hundred twenty (120) days, or if Buyer otherwise so instructs Seller, then Seller shall develop and maintain a disaster recovery plan for the recovery and continuation of business related to the design, development, certification, manufacture, sale, use and/or support of the Products furnished hereunder, in the event of a disaster or emergency. Such disaster recovery plan shall, among other things, prevent or limit the interruption of the supply of Products in conformity with the requirements set forth herein. Seller shall furnish a copy of such disaster recovery plan to Buyer upon request, and shall cooperate in good faith with Buyer to incorporate any recommended changes that Buyer may suggest.

15. LABOR DISPUTES

Whenever Seller has knowledge that any actual or potential labor dispute involving Seller or any tier of Seller’s suppliers or subcontractors is delaying or threatens to delay timely performance of the Order, Seller shall immediately give notice to Buyer, together with all relevant information, including, but not limited to, nature of the dispute, estimated duration, labor organizations involved, and estimated impact on Seller’s performance of the Order. Seller shall also provide updated reports throughout the dispute duration.

16. STOP WORK

A. Buyer may, without cost or other liability and at any time, by written direction to Seller, require Seller to stop all or any part of the work called for by the Order for a period of up to ninety (90) calendar days after such written direction is delivered to Seller and for any further period to which the Parties may agree.
Any such written direction shall be specifically identified as a Stop Work Order (“SWO”) issued pursuant to this Stop Work clause. Upon receipt of an SWO, Seller shall immediately comply with its terms. Within the period of the work stoppage specified by the SWO and any amendments to the SWO, Buyer shall either (1) cancel all or part of the SWO, or (2) terminate all or part of the work covered by such SWO as provided in the Termination for Convenience clause.

B. To the extent an SWO issued under this Stop Work clause is canceled, or the period of the work stoppage specified by the SWO or any extension thereof expires, Seller shall resume work and the Parties will agree upon a reasonable adjustment to the delivery schedule.

17. PROPRIETARY INFORMATION
A. “Proprietary Information” means all information (including, but not limited to, oral, written, and/or stored information used, prepared by, compiled by or in the possession of a Party or its representatives) that is disclosed, provided, or made available by a Party (the “Disclosing Party”) to the other party (the “Receiving Party”) or otherwise received or obtained by the Receiving Party in contemplation of or in connection with the Order, in whatever form or medium disclosed, provided, made available or received, that (1) is considered proprietary or confidential by the Disclosing Party, regardless of whether marked proprietary or confidential; or (2) is information received from others that the Disclosing Party is obligated to treat as confidential. Proprietary Information includes any information about the Order, including the existence, terms, contents, or status thereof. Proprietary Information also includes memoranda, reports, analyses, extracts or notes the Receiving Party produces that are based on, reflect or contain any of the Disclosing Party’s Proprietary Information.

B. Each Receiving Party agrees that it shall maintain in confidence and secrecy, and not disclose to any third party or use, directly or indirectly, except as set forth below, all Proprietary Information received from or made available by the Disclosing Party, or received orally or visually. Each Receiving Party shall protect the Disclosing Party’s Proprietary Information from unauthorized disclosure and use with at least the same degree of care the Receiving Party normally exercises to protect its own Proprietary Information to prevent undesired dissemination and use thereof, and in no case shall the degree of care be less than reasonable care.

C. Each Receiving Party may: (1) copy the Proprietary Information received from the Disclosing Party on an as-required basis in order to fulfill the Receiving Party’s obligations under the Order, provided that all such copies or portions thereof bear copies of the Disclosing Party’s original legends (if any); and (2) disclose the Proprietary Information to those of the Receiving Party’s officers and employees (including officers and employees of its Affiliates), and others under the Receiving Party’s control (collectively, “Representatives”), who have a need-to-know for purposes of its performance under the Order. The Receiving Party shall cause all of its Representatives to observe the terms of this Proprietary Information clause and shall be responsible for any breach of the terms of this Proprietary Information clause by it or its Representatives. “Affiliate” shall mean, with respect to any entity, any other entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control.

D. The obligations imposed by this Proprietary Information clause shall not apply, or shall cease to apply, to any Proprietary Information if or when, but only to the extent that, such Proprietary Information:

1. was known to the Receiving Party prior to its receipt of the Proprietary Information hereunder;
2. passes into the public domain (other than by act or omission attributable to the Receiving Party);
3. becomes known to the Receiving Party from sources other than the Disclosing Party under circumstances not involving, to the knowledge of the Receiving Party, any breach of any confidentiality obligation; or
4. is independently developed by the Receiving Party who had no substantive knowledge of the Disclosing Party’s information or data, as evidenced by the written records thereof.

E. It shall not be a breach of the confidentiality obligations herein for a Receiving Party to disclose Proprietary Information in circumstances where, but only to the extent that, such disclosure is required by law or applicable legal process, provided in such case the Receiving Party shall to the extent not prohibited by law or regulatory process, (1) give the earliest notice practicable to the Disclosing Party that such disclosure is or may be required and (2) cooperate, at the expense of the Disclosing Party, in protecting the confidential or proprietary nature of the Proprietary Information which must so be disclosed.

F. In the event that the Parties have previously entered into a nondisclosure agreement or proprietary information agreement, the Parties agree that their rights and obligations with respect to the Proprietary Information shall be governed by the most favorable provisions as to the Disclosing Party’s rights and obligations and protection of the Disclosing Party’s information as are set forth in such nondisclosure agreement or proprietary information agreement or in this Proprietary Information clause.

G. Except as expressly provided in this Proprietary Information clause or in the Intellectual Property
18. INFORMATION SECURITY

Seller shall implement and maintain commercially reasonable physical and cybersecurity safeguards and security mechanisms to protect the confidentiality and integrity of Buyer’s non-public data and the systems that house or handle such data. Seller shall immediately notify Buyer of: (1) any unauthorized possession, unauthorized disclosure, or unauthorized use of, loss, or any other potential corruption, compromise, or destruction of any of Buyer’s non-public data, or the systems that house or handle that data; (2) the effect of such use or possession; and (3) the corrective action taken in response thereto. Seller acknowledges that Buyer may be required to notify its customers, regulators, and/or employees of such security incidents and agrees to assist and cooperate with Buyer, at Seller’s expense, with any investigation, disclosures to affected parties, and other remedial measures, in each case, as reasonably requested by Buyer or required by any applicable regulations or privacy laws.

19. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

A. “Intellectual Property” means patented and unpatented inventions and discoveries, pending patent applications, mask works, copyrighted works and copyrightable subject matter in published works and unpublished works, pending copyright registration applications, computer software, data, databases and documentation thereof, trade secrets and other confidential information, know-how and proprietary processes, business methods, formulae, designs, models, technical data and methodologies, trademarks, trade names, and other similar intangible assets.

B.
